

BIKING SAFETY

If you bike in Georgia it might be helpful to know some of the bicycling laws listed in the Official Code of Georgia. Here are a few regulations:

- You must signal your turns with the appropriate gestures.
- No one can ride on the handlebars.
- You have to ride in the same direction as auto traffic.
- When riding a bike at night, you need to have a white light in the front and a red light in the back.
- If you're under 16, you must wear an approved helmet.
